Designations

Chartered Special Needs Consultant

The Chartered Special Needs Consultant (ChSNC®) designation offered by the American College of Financial Services equips financial services professionals with the specialized skills required to help special needs families plan for the future. ChSNC® designees are trained to navigate the unique considerations of estate planning, special needs trusts, tax deductions, healthcare issues, Medicaid complexities, and emotional aspects of providing for a loved one with a disability, making them the only credential in the financial industry designed to provide special needs families with an advisor competent to address their unique concerns.
